

One-on-One Coaching Meeting

Self-Evaluation Form

Step 1: Schedule a one-on-one meeting with their lead instructor (ideally during office hours). Set aside at least 30 minutes for the meeting, and make sure the time is on your calendar, so you do not forget to attend. Work with your lead instructor to find a time that works for both of you.

Instructor: Dr. Terrence Soule

Location: _____

Date: 11-19-2025

Time: 3:30PM

Step 2: Complete the self-evaluation items below. Send a completed copy of this form to your lead instructor at least 24 hours prior to the scheduled one-on-one meeting.

Utilization of documentation strategies:

1 - Lacking

2 - Poor

3 - Fair

4 - ~~Good~~ ✓

5 - Excellent

Idea(s) for improvement:

There was a lack of clarity as to how to start and where to start. However, being given templates for things such as meeting minutes was very helpful.

One-on-one communication with project supervisor:

1 - Lacking

2 - Poor

3 - Fair

4 - ~~Good~~ ✓

5 - Excellent

Idea(s) for improvement:

Dr. Conte De Leon is usually responsive and has tried to be helpful where possible during emails. We have had some issues missing meetings occasionally.

Personal contributions to the project and the team:

1 - Lacking

2 - Poor

3 - Fair

4 - ~~Good~~ ✓

5 - Excellent

Idea(s) for improvement:

I could be spending more regular times working on code and expanding the project.

Interaction with the project sponsor:

1 - Lacking

2 - Poor

3 - Fair

4 - ~~Good~~ ✓

5 - Excellent

Idea(s) for improvement:

Other than missing a few meetings and emails, interactions have been good and helpful. Dr. Conte De Leon has offered very helpful criticisms and suggestions throughout the project thus far.

Project Management strategies:

1 - Lacking

2 - Poor

3 - ~~Fair~~ ✓

4 - Good

5 - Excellent

Idea(s) for improvement:

We have fallen behind due to a lack of specific tasks being built each week, something Dr. Conte De Leon often reminds us about. We need to spend more time focusing on what the next task is to complete.
